Rosoboronexport to demonstrate its foreign trade competencies at GOSZAKAZ 2022

Press release
April 6, 2022

Rosoboronexport JSC (part of Rostec State Corporation) will take part in the XVII All-Russian Forum-Exhibition GOSZAKAZ (STATE ORDER), which will be held from April 6 to 8, 2022 at the Skolkovo Innovation Center, outside of Moscow.

At its stand, the company will showcase products from leading Russian manufacturers for equipping law enforcement agencies, security structures and security personnel working at transport hubs, railway stations and airports.

Rosoboronexport will present products of domestic enterprises in the form of full-scale models, advertising materials and catalogs. Among them will be the world's popular ORSIS T-5000, AR-15J, Lobaev Arms DVL-10 M1 Saboteur rifles, Saiga and Vepr series carbines, various special equipment, ST-2630M, ST-2935T, ST-2630L inspection and screening systems, NR-MD metal detectors, Segment automatic chemical agent alarm system with a handheld trace detector, and personal protective equipment (Taktika body armor and TOR bulletproof helmet). In addition, a mock-up of the PB-4SP OSA non-lethal pistol, as well as AIR-107U, M-140 stun guns and a unique EM-41 Cerberus metal detector with a built-in stun gun capability will be on display at the company's stand.

The company's specialists will take an active part in the forum's business program. Rosoboronexport will demonstrate its unique foreign trade competencies at GOSZAKAZ during thematic discussions, strategic sessions and conferences, as well as meetings and negotiations with representatives of authorized federal and regional procurement bodies, government customers and business executives.

The company will tell about its capacity to conduct export-import operations with partners on the world market, present its proven solutions, in particular a one-stop shop service for consolidating the deliveries of products from various manufacturers through a single supplier, as well as share its experience in promoting civilian products of Russian defense manufacturers to external markets.

In addition, Rosoboronexport is ready to offer its services in launching licensed production, joint ventures and other forms of collaboration under the industrial partnership. For over two decades, the company has accumulated an impressive portfolio of similar projects in the military and civilian industries.
